

WHITE-LABEL MUTUAL NDA - CLAUSE SET

ComplianceDocs - v1.0, August 2026 - Not legal advice - have counsel review before first use.

Core clauses (attach to agency agreement or sign standalone):

- Definition. "Confidential Information" = all non-public information exchanged by the parties, including client lists, site inventories, credentials, pricing, and the existence and terms of this engagement.
- No-client-contact (the key white-label clause). Processor shall not contact, market to, solicit, or accept direct work from any of Agency's clients identified during the engagement, during the term and for 24 months after termination. Processor communicates with client sites only through technical access granted by Agency.
- Anonymity. Processor operates under Agency's branding in all client-facing outputs. Processor shall not disclose its role to Agency's clients except where legally compelled (with prior notice to Agency).
- Use limitation. Confidential Information used solely to deliver the maintenance services. No aggregation, publication, or benchmarking use.
- Return/destruction. On termination, all Confidential Information returned or destroyed within 30 days; written confirmation provided. Retained legal records exempted, listed in writing.
- Term. Obligations survive 24 months from last disclosure.
- Governing law. [Danish law / other], exclusive jurisdiction [city].

ComplianceDocs · v1.0 · Professional template with guidance comments - not legal advice.